

Early Years Child Protection Programme

Mandatory Reporting of Child Protection Concerns – Commencing December 11th, 2017

5 Steps to Prepare for the Children First Act, 2015
Step 1	> Take the Tusla e-learning module, Introduction to Children First , which
E-Learning	provides introductory information about the new legal requirements.
	> Everyone working or involved in an early years service should complete the course including staff, board members and volunteers.
	> It is recommended that in addition to completing the e-learning module a minimum of 2 people in each service attend Always Children First Child Protection Training. Training will be available through your local Childcare Committee from March, 2018.
Step 2.	> Children First Guidance 2017
Download and Read	> A Guide for Reporting Child Protection and Welfare Concerns.
Step. 3	> If you are a chairperson or service manager, make sure all staff and team
Inform staff	members have been informed about the new legal obligations before
	December 11 th , 2017.
Step 4.	> Start Developing your Child Safeguarding Statement – you have until
Develop a Child	March 11 th , 2018.
Safeguarding Statement	> Read the Guidance on developing a Child Safe Guarding Statement:
	Download here.
Step 5	> Look out for our Briefing Sessions on the Children First Act, 2015 for early
Attend a Briefing Session	years services in early 2018.